Dear Valued Client,

I am delighted to announce the recent appointment of Nick Prokopiec as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Searson Buck Group.

Joining Searson Buck in December 2013, Nick will be a personality familiar to many of you in the Tasmanian business community and has been critical to the company's growth and success of the business.

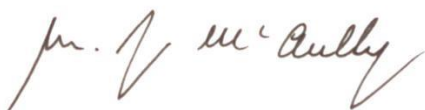

Nick has senior management experience developed across a broad range of industries for local and international leaders within the fast-moving consumer goods sector, civil construction and the pharmaceutical industries.

Nick holds a genuine enthusiasm for the recruitment and consulting industry and importantly an in-depth knowledge of how the Group's products and services can be strategically integrated to support our business partners.

With a high sense of purpose, he brings to the company, an exciting vision to lead and strengthen the Searson Buck brand and to further diversify the Group's portfolio of product and services to the Tasmanian business community.

The Searson Buck team look forward to continuing to support your business to achieve your strategic goals through the power of people.

Yours sincerely

Malcolm McAully
